This is the bullshit we deal with. You already knew all this but just to reiterate, I represent the private sector folks. Your letter was imprecise in describing my role. The city, state (and DoD) "opt out" and aren't part of my discussions because they don't (or in the case of DoD, can't) participate in "lobbying.". Jeff and Loren are co-chairs of the entire pci group (including opt outs) which makes this all the more confusing. Anyway, there are those at EPA in the counsel's office who enjoy fostering these types of divisions. So, to be clear, I work for the PCI Private Business Group which is everyone but the government opt outs. The Dec 5th meeting will include the entire PCI Group including the opt outs. Anyway, back to work. Have a good weekend. Sorry for the distraction.

Subject: Portland Harbor - EPA letter October 9, 2018

Sheryl and Lori,

We were surprised to receive the attached letter which was forwarded to us today by the PCI Group Co-Chairs. Please note that Rich Gold is a lobbyist hired by some PRPs and does not represent all PCI members. The City and State cannot participate in such outside lobbying efforts. The City, State and Federal PCI participants are not part of the Holland and Knight lobbying work nor are they informed about the work Mr. Gold conducts or the conversations that he has with EPA. Mr. Gold does not and cannot represent the PCI Group.

Your letter indicates a desire to have EPA communicate with the entire PCI Group. To effectuate that, we wanted to clarify that communications with and through Holland and Knight are not communications with the PCI Group. Further, communications with Co-Chairs Loren Dunn and Jeff Ring are only communications with the entire PCI Group when it is clear that they are communicating with EPA on behalf of the entire PCI Group, rather than in their capacity as representatives of the Pre- Remedial Design Group, which has only four members, or as participants in the lobbying efforts noted above, neither of which are on behalf of the entire PCI Group.

If you have any questions don't hesitate to contact us.
